CASE NO. C04-2374C

MINUTE ORDER

1 The following Minute Order is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable John C.
2 Coughenour, United States District Judge:

3 This matter comes before the Court on the following four motions and all the responses and
4 replies thereto: (1) Plaintiff's and Third-Party Defendants' Motion to Extend Discovery and To Take 5 Additional Depositions (Dkt. No. 133); (2) Plaintiff's and Third-Party Defendants' Third Motion to 6 Compel Discovery from Defendants (Dkt. No. 139); (3) Plaintiff's and Third-Party Defendants' Fourth
7 Motion to Compel Discovery (Dkt. No. 136); and (4) Plaintiff's and Third-Party Defendants' Fifth
8 Motion to Compel Discovery from Defendants (Dkt. No. 202).

9 The Court hereby DENIES the motions in their entirety. Further, as previously stated by this
10 Court, the parties are advised to review the subject matter of these motions and consider carefully
11 whether their respective positions are consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly 12 Rules 26(g) and 37(c), and if not, the parties are directed to conform their disclosures, responses,
13 answers, admissions, and overall conduct to those Rules. For an additional refresher on their obligations
14 to each other, the parties are advised to carefully review Rule 26 as a whole and all of this Court's prior
15 discovery-related Orders, including the December 20, 2004 Order regarding discovery and depositions
16 (Dkt. No. 7). The Court trusts that the parties will comply fully with their respective obligations from 17 this point forward and work out discovery disputes among themselves.

18
19 DATED this 13th day of December, 2005.
